The CES team collaborates with state and local agencies through demonstration sites to ensure that the voices of young people are central to the decision-making process on issues that impact their lives, building healing-centered school and agency cultures, and ensuring effective coordination amongst schools, community and public agencies. This team currently operates as a statewide program in Arizona focused on foster youth and demonstration sites in four California counties. Part X, Line 2:	NCYL is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by NCYL in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. NCYL's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
